'Puer Iesus in Templo' A Latin Play

On the 20th of March, the Latin club from Winkfield St Mary's School performed a play: Puer Iesus in Templo. The play was performed in Latin, with an English commentary for the benefit of the audience. The story acted out was about the young boy Jesus and his friend Tabitha going to Scopus, to celebrate Passover. When Jesus and Tabitha stopped at the Temple, whilst their parents carried on with the journey, they met two street children; Jonus and Rebecca. At first the street children were nasty and stole Tabitha's apple. But then Jesus spoke to them and they realised that good was much better than bad. The performance closed showing Jesus and Tabitha (with their families), the street children, and Hanna, the wise prophet, Julia, the kind lady who agreed to give the street children a home, and Tobias, the priest. An enjoyable evening was had by all.
